BOOK SYNOPSIS

Like many ambitious New York City teenagers, Craig Gilner sees entry into Manhattans Executive Pre-Professional High School as the ticket to his future. Determined to succeed at life—which means getting into the right high school to get into the right college to get the right job—Craig studies night and day to ace the entrance exam, and does. Thats when things start to get crazy. At his new school, Craig realizes that he isnt brilliant compared to the other kids; hes just average, and maybe not even that. He soon sees his once-perfect future crumbling away.
